Road Names

An activity of "Our Singapore: Indian Flower Shop"

INTRODUCTION

In Little India, Buffalo Road and Kerbau Road bear witness to that area's history of cattle trading. There are many other road names and landmarks that tell a story about Singapore's history. Let's look for such roads and landmarks to discover their stories.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. BROWSE through "Indian Flower Shop" (<http://www.whatsup.sg/oursingapore/FlowerShop.htm>).
2. LIST Singaporean landmarks or road names that interest you. SELECT one to research in depth. Here are some suggestions:
  - Chitty Road
  - Sungei Road
  - D'Almeida Street
  - Armenian Church
  - CHIJMES
3. FIND OUT, by asking adults and surfing the internet:
  - how that landmark or road name got its name
  - its history and
  - what part of that history can still be seen there today.
4. PREPARE a short quiz with three multiple choice questions about your landmark or road name.
5. PRESENT your landmark or road name in class and explain your findings.
6. CONDUCT your quiz after your presentation as an enjoyable way for your classmates to remember what you shared.
